College of Computer Science and Information Technology Achievements – 9- 2026

September saw the completion of various academic and administrative tasks at the :College of Computing and Information Technology. Key highlights include

Completion of First Semester Activities: Finalizing scheduled and make-up  .lectures, and fulfilling all requirements of the semester's educational process

Execution of Final Exams: Conducting the college's final examinations, overseeing  .exam administration and review processes, and approving final grades

Completion of Academic Assessment: Monitoring the grading of assignments,  .research projects, and self-study materials, and finalizing grade entry on the portal

Fulfilling E-Course Requirements: Overseeing the uploading of exams, summaries,  and academic materials to the portal, and enhancing the use of the electronic system .to monitor the educational process

Completion of Administrative and Academic Tasks: Reviewing files related to the  first semester and addressing the requirements of departments and specialized .committees

Preparing Student Data for the Upcoming Semester: Receiving undergraduate and  .postgraduate student lists and submitting them to the College Council

Preparing for the Upcoming Semester: Coordinating with department heads and  the scheduling committee regarding courses, assigning courses to faculty members, .and initiating the preparation of class schedules

Enhancing Administrative and Academic Coordination: Maintaining coordination  between the college administration, department heads, and specialized committees to ensure tasks are completed and requirements for the transition to the new semester .are met

:Conclusion

September's activities culminated in the completion of first-semester requirements and the initiation of preparations for the upcoming semester. This was achieved through the execution of necessary academic and administrative tasks, the finalization of student lists, and course assignments, all paving the way for an organized start to the new semester